

Dan Croft – Assistant Secretary, Precinct 3

Dan Croft was born on Galveston Island and raised in Alta Loma, Galveston County, Texas. He's a 6th generation Texan with direct ties to the Old 300. His banking career began in 1969 in Beaumont Texas while attending Lamar State College of Technology where he received a BBA in Management in 1971. After graduation from Lamar, he moved to Freeport with wife Teresa Landry Croft where he continued his banking career.

During his career, Dan worked in all phases of Banking, from teller to President; and all types of Banking Establishments; Savings Banks, Mortgage Banks, Credit Unions and Commercial Banks. Through banking Dan assisted businesses and individuals throughout the region with commercial, mortgage and personal loan transactions utilizing a cooperative professional business approach that applies respect and appreciation to the customer while incorporating a personal resolve to generate quality loan assets for the banks.

Education

Croft graduated from Lamar State College of Technology with a Bachelor's in Business Administration.

Affiliations & Community Involvement

Dan retired from The First State Bank of Louise in 2023. Throughout his career, and now in retirement, Dan has taken an active role in his community by volunteering and serving on the board of numerous Civic, business and community organizations; he remains active in Rotary, Brazoria County Economic Development Alliance and CCA TX.

Personal

Dan and Teresa reside in Jones Creek and have two sons, Sean and Eric, and 5 grandchildren. Dan is in his second term as Commissioner of Port Freeport where he has overseen rapid and expansive growth; to include the final phase of the Freeport Harbor Improvement Project (which will take the Channel to a 51-56 feet depth; Completion of Berth 8 (a newly completed +/- 900 foot dock plus an attached Roll-On-Roll-Off component), the successfully negotiated agreement that brings VW Group of America to Port Freeport and a Zero percent tax rate.