LEADERSHIP ANGLETON VISITED PORT FREEPORT

Freeport, TX (December 9, 2016) – On the 7th of December, Leadership Angleton 2017 visited Port Freeport. Leadership Angleton is designed to promote and foster the development of community leaders for the Angleton Area by acquainting program participants with the area’s assets, needs, and opportunities. The ultimate goal of this program is to build community leaders for today and tomorrow. Visit their website for additional information: <http://www.angletonchamber.org/pages/LeadershipAngleton>.

The group was joined by fellow alumni Dude Payne, Brazoria County Commissioner and Jeff Bilyeu, AAE, Texas Gulf Coast Regional Airport Aviation Director for support. They were welcomed by Phyllis Saathoff, Port Freeport Executive Director/CEO and viewed the State of the Port presentation given by Jason Miura, Port Freeport Director of Business & Economic Development. Miura guided the group on a tour of the Port’s facilities. After the tour, they returned to the Emergency Operation Center where they heard from Clay Forrester of the Brazoria County Engineer Department and Michelle Millard, P.E. with TXDOT which concluded their day schedule.
